CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1945 twenty excited youngsters entered Fillmore junior high. It was their real start on the way to the big year when they would be seniors. Members of the group were Preston Webster, Charles Phillips, Donald Ruark, David Grimes, Norris Webster, Earnest Kendall, Stanley Smith, Bette Chestnut, Joyce Boatright, Jeanne Tharp, Jean Selsor, Virginia DeVaney, Mary Ann Cash, Amy Foley, Freda Smith, Bobby Broadstreet, Gerald Carpenter, Paul Estridge, Edwin Jackson and Gilbert Duncan. Mrs. Esther Quick, their sponsor, helped them elect their class officers who were as follows: president-Don Ruark, vice president-Stanley Smith, secretary-Gerald Carpenter, treasurer-Charles Phillips, and reporter-Joyce Boatright.

The following year when they entered the eighth grade Bob Broadstreet, Bette Chestnut and Paul Estridge were missing. Bob had gone to Floyd Township, while Bette had gone to Texas. Bob and Bette came back in the middle of the year along with DeVona Henderson from Floyd Township. Their sponsor, who was the new coach, Mr. Craig, helped them in selecting their class officers who were as follows: president-Freda Smith, vice president-Joyce Boatright, secretary-Virginia DeVaney, treasurer-Jeanne Tharp, and reporter-Jean Selsor. Mr. Craig brought this class much happiness since they won the junior high basketball tourney and were awarded a trophy. Those on the team were David Grimes, Don Ruark, Gerald Carpenter, Gibby Duncan, Norris Webster, Charles Phillips, Stanley Smith and Bob Broadstreet plus some seventh graders. They were also proud to have two members of their class, Joyce Boatright and Mary Ann Cash, as yell leaders.

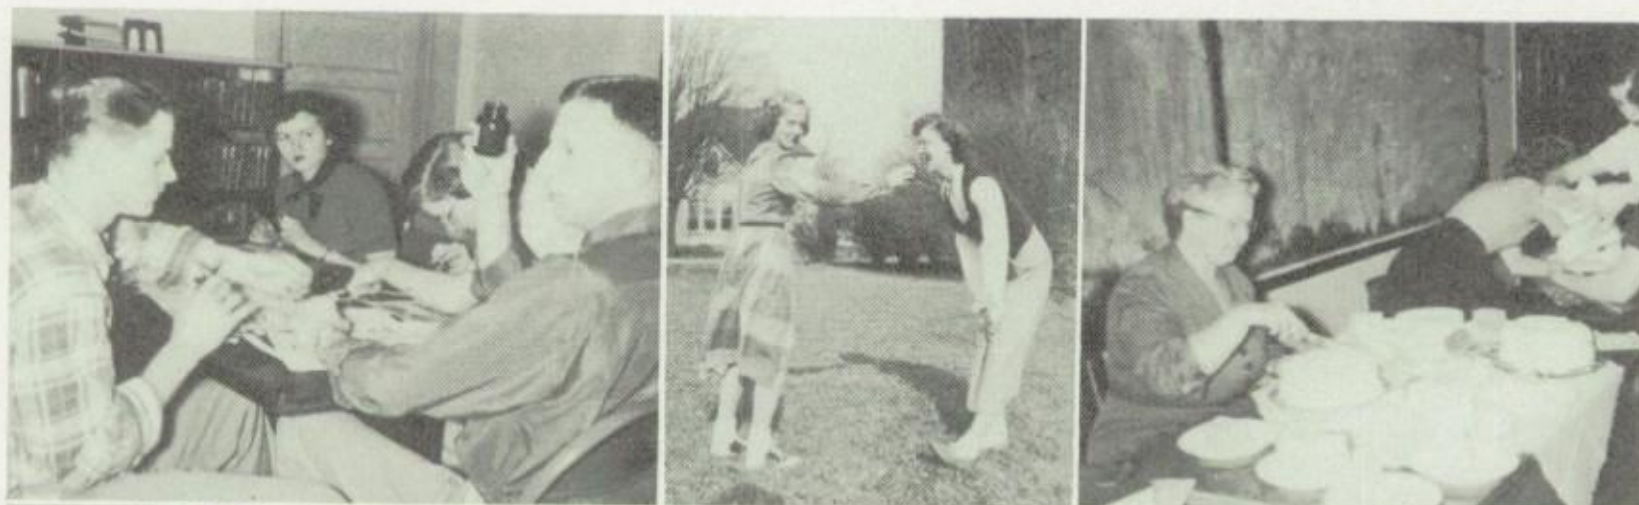

September 1947 saw eighteen members as green freshies. They were minus Virginia DeVaney and Amy Foley. In October Barbara Briggeman joined the group. Mr. Smith was their sponsor and with his able assistance they elected the following class officers: president-David Grimes, vice president-Don Ruark, secretary-Gerald Carpenter, treasurer-Norris Webster, and reporter-Preston Webster. September 19, the long awaited day, found barefoot girls, and boys clad in their mothers' dresses and carrying dolls. The day of fun ended with a party in the gymnasium. This started their high school career off with a bang. On December 2 they had their first high school party. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by all, the teachers included. The class was proud of their basketball members; one of them, David Grimes, played on the varsity. Gerald Carpenter, Don Ruark, Bob Broadstreet, Gibby Duncan and Charles Phillips were members of the B team. Norris Webster was also a member during the first of the year but was forced to discontinue due to an operation. Stanley Smith was student manager.

Eighteen entered the class in the fall of 1948. Barbara Briggeman had gone to Bainbridge. The 13th of September Dorothy Everroad from Muncie entered the group but stayed only until January. It was on September 10th that they, as sophomores, got a chance to treat others as they had been treated. Initiation was climaxed by a party in the gymnasium. Their class sponsor, Mr. Davidson, aided them in electing as class officers: president-Don Ruark, vice president-Stanley Smith, secretary-Jeanne Tharp, treasurer-Norris Webster, and reporter-Joyce Boatright. Near the first of the school year, a skating party was sponsored at Hazelwood by the sophomores. Their class party was held on January 14. February 1st was the date when they selected their class rings; all looked forward to the following year when they would arrive. The class was proud of the fact that three members, David Grimes, Don Ruark and Gerald Carpenter, who helped win the softball championship, also aided in winning both the Wabash Valley preliminary and the sectional.

School started August 26. This would be a very active year for the sixteen juniors. DeVona Henderson left to enter Bainbridge, while Earnest Kendall quit school. Class officers were elected with the help of their sponsor, Miss Molter. Don Ruark, was named president; Jeanne Tharp, vice president; Jean Selsor, secretary; Bette Chestnut, treasurer and Stanley Smith, reporter. There were some excited juniors September 9 when class rings arrived. September 21 they began their magazine campaign. Their goal was $600. They surpassed their goal by $216. December 21 found them enjoying a turkey supper prepared by Miss Molter. The turkey was a prize for reaching their goal in selling magazines. On October 25 they gave their class play "Junior Prom" under the direction of Mr. Pruitt. On December 21 they were surprised by Mr. Pruitt and Miss Molter with a chili supper. Another financial undertaking was that of the coke machine. The sale of Christmas cards brought a profit of $60. The class party which was held January 25 was a great success. A storm put the lights out, but the use of candles made the party more interesting! In basketball Don Ruark, David Grimes, Gerald Carpenter and Gibby Duncan played on the A team, while Bob Broadstreet, Charles Phillips and Stanley Smith aided the B team. Joyce Boatright represented the class as a yell leader. On Saturday, April 22, the junior and senior prom was held at Skyland Lodge near Spencer. This being the big event of the junior year, it had been eagerly awaited. After a delicious fried chicken dinner, the evening was spent in dancing, playing cards and admiring the decorations, for the juniors had transformed the lodge into an old fashioned garden.

Seventeen seniors started the long-awaited year. DeVona Henderson returned from Bainbridge. With Miss Joseph as their sponsor, they elected the following officers: president-Don Ruark, vice president-David Grimes, secretary-Jean Selson, and treasurer-Mary Ann Cash. As soon as school opened, they began their first money making activity by selling books, school supplies, candy and ice cream. The juniors and seniors sponsored a Halloween carnival on October 24. A cake walk, a variety show, a basketball throw, a masquerade and refreshments kept the large crowd interested. A turkey, a lamp and a basketball were given away. On November 18 the seniors held a paper drive and it netted them $31.25 to add to their funds. This was a busy year for the seniors; the class play and the class party are now being planned. A high school dance will be sponsored by the seniors sometime in March. A visit with the juniors on February 13 to Indianapolis to observe the General Assembly was educational. The baccalaureate services will be held on April 22 at the Methodist Church; the commencement will be held April 26 at the Christian Church. Their junior and senior prom will be held April 21, and last, but not least, the senior trip for which they have worked so enthusiastically, will start April 28. A trip through the Smoky Mountains, to Washington D. C., on to Philadelphia and Pittsburg will climax the year's activities.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

We had a carnival in our town recently, and just for curiosity's sake, a friend and I went to visit the fortune teller. We were quite concerned about the seniors of "51" and wished to know how they were thriving in the wide open spaces.

"Well", she said, "first let's see what occurred that was important during the first and second year upon graduating. As I look into my crystal ball, the first thing I see is a happy sight. There are Norman and Joyce and let's see--Yes, there are the darling twins sitting between them at the breakfast table; they look so happy.

Now the scene is changing and in its place I see a young couple stepping up to an altar. Miss Jeanne Tharp and Gerald Carpenter are being married by Rev. Norris Webster. Rev. Webster has made a bright future for himself in the church. Lois has been a loving wife, full of understanding. Now Gerald is slipping the ring on Jeanne's finger, and they're off on a wonderful adventure!

Now let's move to the third year after graduating. There he goes down the floor, and it's a good one! Dave Grimes scores again for Purdue! Great boy that Grimes! He'll be a wonderful coach if he doesn't decide to enter politics like his dad.

My! What's that coming down the road? Why it's Charles Phillips in his old ford hurrying to see Middy! He's an hour late again. Why doesn't he propose and get it over with? She can't wait forever.

Goodness! This is about the quietest scene I have seen yet. There goes Bette Chestnut up to the platform to receive her diploma from the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing. She looks so pretty in her starched white uniform. I'm sure they will welcome her to the Putnam County Hospital.

Why, it's Sergeant Robert Broadstreet of the 101st Airborne Division checking to see that everything is ready for the take off! No women for Bob. He's come a long way in his climb up the ladder of success.

While we are in the army scene, isn't that Mary Ann Cash going down the street? Yes, it's she, all right! She is dressed in a brown uniform. She's about the prettiest WAC I have ever seen, and she looks as if she likes her work. Still, Bob Gray is stored up in the back of her pretty head, but she'll have that career first.

Gress we had better move on a year or two. What's that I see? Edwin Jackson is coming into town in his jeep station wagon. Due to taking bookkeeping in his senior year, Edwin has no trouble with the revenue man taking all his yearly profits! He now owns a two hundred acre farm and is prospering well.

Another year goes by, and into my crystal ball tramp more readin' writin' and rithmetic'. Preston Webster is standing in front of his English class. Why does he keep looking at the third seat in the second row? Why it's a cute little blond! We ought to look back on Press a year or two from now!

Whistle! Whistle! What a pretty little red head! This must be Miss Jean Selsor. She has been away three years in nurse's training and has come to Putnam County Hospital for her duties. Doctors, beware both Bette and Jean!

I had better watch out here or my crystal ball is likely to disappear as Stanley Blackstone Smith steps into view. Stanley is on the stage making his debut as a magician. He can make a spoon jump in a can by uttering a single, magic word!

A glad reunion. DeVona Henderson is meeting her soldier boy at the railroad station. Better say Henderson now, because it won't be that very long. DeVona has been working at Blocks' for the last few years and has saved quite a sum for this important occasion.

Another year has elapsed. Gib, after giving up the idea of coaching high school athletics, is a foreman at Plant 5 at Allison's. He's doing quite well, too. Still a bachelor, but not for long!

A class wouldn't be complete without an office girl or two. Freda Smith is the representative, and a red head too! For a class so small, they certainly have enough bright heads! Freda has just received a promotion at the Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Eight years have passed by before the big event came for this student. Don Ruark is now a doctor! There he goes prepared for his first tonsillectomy. He looks confident enough. Golly, think I'll have mine removed again.

Well, folks, the crystal ball says that's all we see."

Fillmore in Driver's Seat After Win Over Cubs;

Fillmore, Roachdale Win Opening Tussles In Local Sectional

Since early last fall, when the kids were just thinking about hitting hoops with a basketball, Putnam county fans have been talking about the time "when Greencastle and Fillmore got-together." Last night they got-together, and that's putting it mildly. The final decision wasn't decided until the last 15 seconds, and then it took a sensational finish to wind up the battle of the year.

Young Dave Grimes, who likes to play the piano and raise high grade stock on the side, showed his versatility by stealing the old ball game from the Tiger Cubs when it looked like the affair was all iced up.

Cardinals To Battle Covington In Regional Tourney At Clinton

Fillmore's Cardinals won the right to compete in the regional at Clinton this weekend by defeating a fighting Belle Union squad, 47 to 41, Saturday night in the final game of the Greencastle high school sectional net tournament. The Cards will clash with Covington, winner of the Attica sectional. Other sectional winners at Clinton will be Waveland and Cayuga.

Fillmore went to the finals by eliminating their previous nemesis, the Roachdale Hawks, 47 to 41, in the first tilt of the semi-finals Saturday afternoon. Belle Union's Black Panthers took the measure of the Russellville Bees, 46 to 44, in a contest more exciting as it

Cardinal Victory Shakes Jinx Held By Hawk Quartet

The Fillmore Cards broke the Roachdale jinx this afternoon and defeated the Hawks, 45-41, to advance to the finals of the Putnam county sectional basketball tourney.

It was a sweet victory for the Cards who had been set back twice in the last two outings with the north Putnam cagers.

Fillmore Cardinals Edge Belle Union for Sectional Net Honors

Fillmore Cardinals today held the title of 1951 basketball champions of Putnam county.

They got that way Saturday night when they copped the annual sectional tournament in winning the final and edge over Belle Union, 47-41.

Fillmore advanced to the finals the hard way—licking Greencastle Tiger Cubs Thursday night and then coming in from behind to eliminate their old rivals from Roachdale in Saturday afternoon's

Thank You

--two of the most important words in our language. Saying "thank you" expresses ordinary courtesy.

When said and meant, it makes the recipient feel better. When you say "thank you" you tell your listener, it was a pleasure to expend effort on his or her behalf. We're looking forward to the day when we can cheerfully say to you--

Thank you.
